

Story Elements

Plot

- The story line
- Series of _____, causal, events that happen in the story (snowball effect)

Parts of the Plot

1. Background Information - Sets the stage for the story, the beginning set up

- Character(s) – A personality in a story
 - Protagonist – _____ character (good guy)
 - Antagonist – _____ character (bad guy)
- Setting – _____ and _____ the story takes place

2. Initial Incident - The event that sets the story into motion

3. Rising Action – Complications that grow more intense and _____ to the climax

- Complications/Obstacles – Conflicts, or struggles, between opposing forces

* Without conflict, you don't have a story. ****

- Internal Conflict – Character vs. Self

- The _____ struggle between what a character wants to do and what the character must do

- External Conflict – Character vs. Character/Group/Nature/Faith

- The external problem standing in the way of the character and his/her goals

4. Climax – Turning point and most intense, _____ moment

5. Falling Action – Everything leading up to the _____/the pieces are falling into place.

6. Resolution – The main _____ is resolved, the loose ends are tied up and the story is closed

Story Elements

Theme – The author’s message, _____ of the story, a lesson on life

Voice

1. Point of View

a. 1st person – narrator, one of the characters, is telling the story (I, me, we, us)

b. 3rd person – narrator, NOT one of the characters, is telling the story (he, she, they / NEVER uses I, me, we, us, you)

c. 2nd person – the author is speaking directly to the reader (you)

 Never used in narratives or expository, except for dialogue*

 Usually only used in editorials, guides, or persuasive writing*

2. Tone – The author’s _____ toward the audience, character, or topic

3. Mood – The overall emotion, or _____ created by a piece of literature

Flashback – A break in the action of a plot to reveal what happened at an _____ time (Often a character’s memory)

Foreshadowing – The use of clues to suggest what will happen _____ in the plot

Suspense – The uncertainty or _____ the reader feels about what will happen

Irony – When what happens is very different from what is _____ to happen

Allusion – A _____ to a statement, person, a place, or an event from literature, history, religion, mythology, politics, sports, or science

Symbolism – The use of a particular person, place, thing, or event that has its original _____ and also stands for something else